DETAILS:

[redacted] advised that he has been acquainted with subject and his family for many years, and that he is generally regarded in the community as a "mental case". [redacted] knows of subject's tendencies toward writing letters, and stated that he is not taken seriously by those who know him.

[redacted] has known for a long time that subject is mentally deranged. He explained that subject has been treated in mental institutions, but still seems in need of treatment. He said he had never heard anything which might indicate that subject is dangerous, but has some obsession about the Government and prominent people. He said subject was born in [redacted] that he attended [redacted] college, but did not graduate; and that he was mentally unbalanced since after leaving school. According to [redacted]

[redacted] this mental disturbance first manifested itself by subject proclaiming himself to be an atheist. B7D

[redacted] confidentially expressed a desire for the Bureau to proceed against subject in some way, in order that he might be admitted to some institution for treatment. He said he would not like to have subject's aged parents know he had made this suggestion, because he felt that they would oppose such a move. In view of the fact that such cases are handled through the office of the Clerk of Superior Court, in North Carolina, he was asked why he had not taken some action in this respect. He replied that he hesitated to offend [redacted] and also that the quota [redacted] had been exceeded already. [redacted] said he knew of subject's letter writing activities; in fact, had recently been seriously embarrassed by a scurrilous letter written by subject to the Governor of North Carolina, for which he personally apologized and explained the situation to the Governor when asked about it. He said he had no influence with subject, but that [redacted] might be of some assistance.

[redacted] advised that he had been expecting a call from some Government authority regarding [redacted] who he said is mentally deranged. He related that this derangement became pronounced in the early 1920's when subject was discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps. He said subject joined the Marine Corps after World War I, and served for some time in China. Although he did not know definitely, he said he believed subject had been discharged because of his mental condition. Shortly thereafter, subject was placed in an asylum [redacted] and later transferred to [redacted] State Hospital for the Insane [redacted]

[redacted] he was transferred to [redacted]

[redacted] stated it is possible [redacted] may be able to exercise sufficient influence over subject to cause him to stop writing libelous and defamatory letters; however, he expressed doubt concerning this possibility. He stated he believes the best course of action would be to have subject confined in some institution where he could obtain medical care, and asked if the Bureau could accomplish this.

On January 23, 1944, the Charlotte Office received a letter from [redacted]

[redacted] stating [redacted] was at that time seventy-five years old, and that the action of [redacted] during recent months had caused him considerable worry and trouble, which was "not doing him any good at his age". He said he was looking after [redacted] affairs as well as [redacted]

Subject was located working and immediately identified by his stream of little attention. The writer attempted to interview subject in a car parked nearby, and as soon as subject was seated in the car he began a long and lengthy tirade against the Government, the New Deal, Jews, England and such internationally known personalities as the Director, Mr. ROBERT HANCOCK, the late President ROOSEVELT, and WINSTON CHURCHILL. His speech was loud, incoherent and frequently very obscene. It was difficult to determine whether there was any central theme in his thinking, unless it was that he and the public generally is victimized by some fantastic international Jewish financial conspiracy. Although he was warned of the consequences of violating the Federal extortion laws, it is doubted that such a warning had any effect, as it seemed to represent another example of Government oppression in that he was being denied his constitutional right of free speech.

The Honorable GEORGE CHERITY, Governor of North Carolina, advised that he had a hazy recollection of having received a letter from subject, but did not recall its contents and could not locate the letter.

advised Special Agent [redacted] to interview subject as a result of a letter addressed to the President of the United States, in which he made reference to the visit and the FBI generally in a defamatory and obscene manner.

The Miami and Los Angeles Offices were advised by telegram March 29, 1936, that subject had been located.

The facts pertaining to communications mailed from the Eastern District of North Carolina were presented to U. S. Attorney JOHN HALLAMER, who declined to authorize prosecution because the contents of the letters in the possession of this Office do not constitute a violation. It is noted the obscene material has not been furnished the Charlotte Office.

Charlotte 9-522

B7C It is noted that the last letter received from the Los Angeles Office which contains a threat to kill Martin Luther King was postmarked at [REDACTED] which is in the Middle District of North Carolina. Accordingly, the facts were presented to Assistant U. S. Attorney [REDACTED] who declined prosecution because of subject's mental condition. She stated that it appeared from the investigation that subject was mentally unsound, as he had been treated at several mental institutions, and that a mentally incompetent person could not enter a plea if tried.

The following description of subject was obtained through observation and interrogation:

On March 30, 1946, [REDACTED] B7C
of the Charlotte Post Office Department, advised that her office was in possession of ten postal cards of a declamatory nature, eight of which were addressed to the FBI, Washington, D.
C., and the remaining two, to Army Intelligence, c/o General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Washington, D. C. In addition, [REDACTED] advised that they were in possession of ten magazines of the movie mirror variety which were unaddressed but had the words,
"FBI OO" appearing on the inside covers.

[REDACTED] stated that the post cards and magazines were found in street letter box on [REDACTED] just in front of the Courthouse Building on March 5, 1946. She advised that the magazines were not considered as mail inasmuch as no stamps were thereon, and also because the post cards were defaced (writing appearing on the address side of the cards) they were not eligible for mailing.

It is believed that the writing appearing on the instant post cards and magazines were prepared by [REDACTED] the subject of the instant case, who is mentally deranged.

Inasmuch as the United States Attorneys in the Eastern and Middle Districts of North Carolina have previously declined prosecution of subject because of his mental condition as advised in the report of Special Agent [REDACTED] dated April 9, 1946, at Charlotte, North Carolina, no further prosecutive action is anticipated at this time.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS

Communications written during past three years by subject and forwarded to victims via U.S. mail contained messages ranging from nuisance and obscene matter to threats to kill. Subject located and interviewed. [REDACTED] USA, Middle District, North Carolina declined prosecution. Subject considered mentally deranged, having had previous treatment in mental institutions, and not considered mentally capable of entering plea if brought into court.

Teletype from Charlotte to Director and Los Angeles dated 4/2/46.

DETAILS:

The activities of subject first came to the attention of the Los Angeles Field Division in November of 1943 when a letter addressed to Miss DOROTHY LAMOUR, Hollywood, California and postmarked [REDACTED] September 18, 1943 at 3:00 P.M. was referred to this office for evaluation and handling. Although this letter contains no threats or any statement which would constitute a violation of the Extortion Statute, it was felt that the information should be forwarded to the Bureau and placed on file, and that some investigation should be conducted to determine if the writer of the letter was of sound mind and also to prevent any further letters to be written to Miss LAMOUR.

The letter which was signed by [REDACTED] was pencil written and contained instructions to the effect that Miss LAMOUR should proceed to Oakland, California and contact one [redacted] described as an airplane manufacturer representative, and further instructed that Miss LAMOUR should charter a plane from him. Miss LAMOUR was then given instructions to proceed to [redacted] to meet the writer of the letter.

During 1944, the FBI Laboratory in Washington, D.C. was in receipt of additional communications directed to people of prominence in this country which were identified as having been written by the same party who had written to Miss LAMOUR, and had signed his name as [redacted]. Victims in these additional communications include the French Ambassador, Washington, D.C. and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the seat of government.

By letter dated February 27, 1946, [redacted] Cagney Productions, Inc., 1041 North Formosa, Hollywood 18, California, transmitted additional communications apparently written by subject to Mr. JAMES CAGNEY, well known motion picture actor.

By letter dated March 5, 1946, [redacted] Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation, Beverly Hills, California furnished additional communications apparently written by subject and were received by Mr. DARRYL L. ZANUCK.

A description of the items received by Mr. CAGNEY and Mr. ZANUCK are being set forth herewith: These documents were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for appropriate examination by letter dated March 1, 1946.

(1) A three-page letter dated and postmarked February 16, 1946, [redacted] On the back of the envelope it states: "ADOLPH HITLER is still alive in Germany (Berlin) Germans are smart (for the F.B.I.)" The letter itself begins: "Dear Darryl. Those nugs and yeggs will lay off of you: Now let's see if the F.B.I. is smart. I love LANA TURNER. You look like a bunch of saps to me. Signed, Your Friend, [redacted]"

The letter then continues "ADOLPH ZUKOR is the LEAD; The SCION of the West Coast; The aincoanpoop from Frisco. Tell the F.B.I. that Adolph ZUKOR is the LEAD." The second page is obscene.

(2) A two-page letter and envelope dated and [redacted] February 14, 1946, addressed to Mr. DARRYL ZANUCK at Hollywood. This letter begins:

"Dear Darryl:- Give me time, for 'Christ sake' ($). Rome wasn't built in a day: you've been a 'wet nurse' a long time."

The rest of the letter is of a rambling nature and mentioned many

In this letter he says that ADOLPH ZUKOR is the man he is after; that ZUKOR sold information to the Germans during World War 2 and is tied up with an international opium ring and smuggling outfit. On page 2 he says:

"The F.B.I. and Scotland Yards, London, England are paid off (so you will have to be sure who you talk with); The F.B.I. was paid off ($) by Jews - and Scotland Yards was paid off (pound sign) by the ROTHSCHILDS and the British Lords. Russia had absolutely nothing to do with it."

On Page 3 [redacted] says: "I was born [redacted] an of English, Scotch, Irish & Welsh descent -- and not a German." Further on he says he is a direct descendant of [redacted] of England and of [redacted] of Wales; that for confirmation CAGNEY should call his mother & father [redacted]

(6) Letter dated at Weldon, N.C., 2/23/46, in envelope postmarked

[REDACTED], February 22, 1946, on stationery of [REDACTED] addressed to [REDACTED] B7C
 Mr. JAMES CAGNEY. The letter begins: "Dear Jimmy: - Go up there to see LANA. My word is my bond ($)."

Although there appeared to be no direct threats contained in these communications, it was believed that the slander against the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the allegations regarding ADOLPH ZUCKER, and obscene character of some of the letters warranted an investigation to determine the whereabouts of [REDACTED] and an extensive interview with him, and then presentation of facts to the appropriate United States Attorney. Accordingly, the Miami and Charlotte Field Divisions were requested to instigate an investigation of [REDACTED]

By letter dated March 19, 1946, [REDACTED] of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures, Culver City, California transmitted additional letters and one postal card, which were addressed to Messrs. SAMUEL GOLDWYN & LOUIS B. MAYER, in care of M.G.M. Studios, Inc., Culver City, California and all signed by [REDACTED]. These communications described below were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for appropriate examination by letter dated March 26, 1946.

(1) One penny postal card postmarked [REDACTED] March 13, 1946, addressed to "Messr. Louis B. Mayer & Samuel Goldwyn, c/o M.G.M. Studios, Inc., Culver City, California." This postal card, which was typewritten and signed with a typewriter [REDACTED] contained the following text:

"3/11/46

"Dear Friends:

"The whole International set-up is this: British Financiers do not like the idea of Russian Power on the Continent of Europe anymore than they liked Nazi Power on the Continent of Europe. Hence, the potentiality of a third World War: A war with Russia would dispense with Russian power on the Continent of Europe and would HELP GATE American Industry, natural resources and Finance ($). And at the same time ENHANCE British Maritime Trade, Industry, agricultural exports, and FINANCE ($), etc., etc.

"The Rothschilds, of England, are founders and head Executives of the British Financial Systems, Lombard and Threadneedle Sts., London, England.

"Your Friend, [REDACTED]

(2) One letter postmarked [REDACTED] March 12, 1946, addressed "Messrs. Samuel Goldwyn & Louis B. Mayer, c/o M.G.M. Studios, Inc., Culver City, California. (Strictly Personal)." This letter is also typewritten and is dated "3/10/46 [REDACTED] However, the signature

"DEAR FRIENDS:

"It's right up your alley ($)--so what the hell do you care?

"You look out for Lana Turner--that's all I ask--I'll make you richer than two-foot up a bull's a ($). I know my onions, MY FRIENDS. Jews? Skip it! What the hell do I care about Jews, Gentiles, Negroes, Catholics, Protestants, or what have you!?

"Give Oscar Levant my best regards.

"Albert Einstein is a PAUPER ($)! He's a FRIEND of MINE, too.

"Your Friend

"Don't tell Lana that I write to you: Why don't you get in on the Fun? I can handle Lana--don't you worry! Your $1,000,000.00 STAR. You are a business man ($), aren't you?

"LANA TURNER'S MOTHER IS A JEWESS: SO WHAT? Her father was Irish. Well, her mother tried to keep it a secret: That same-old fault of the Jew, "ashamed of being a Jew!" The ZIONIS: MOVEMENT will never, never get anywhere as long as Jews are ashamed of being Jews. There is nothing in Albert Einstein or Charles P. Steinmetz, etc., etc., to be ashamed of (PERIOD).

"Have a little fun--but don't worry Lana: She is deeply concerned with the FUTURE WELFARE OF BABY CHERYL: wonderful GIRL. She's MY WIFE."

(3) One letter postmarked [REDACTED], March 13, 1946, addressed "Messrs. Louis B. Mayer & Samuel Goldwyn, c/o M.G.M. Studios, Inc., Culver City, California (Strictly Personal)." This communication, which was dated [REDACTED] 3/12/46, contained for the most part a typewritten text. The signature, however, was in pencil, the name of [REDACTED] and there was a post script at the bottom of the letter which was in pencil, partly handwritten and partly handprinted. The contents are set forth herewith:

"Messrs. (Messieurs) Samuel Goldwyn (Let's forget that Jew stuff--business is business $: Now never, never tell a woman your business $) and Louis B. Mayer

c/o M.G.M. Studios, Inc.
Culver City, Calif.

"Friends:

"That damn Zukor is just Envious and Jealous: Why don't that old turn up his toes and die? He's out-lived his usefulness ($).

"Now Gianinni is the SMARTEST FINANCIER in this Country--and Henry J. Kaiser is the smartest Industrialist in this Country: I want you to affiliate yourselves with the above two men: Now I'm going to let you in on a good secret ($)--You haven't got any friends ($) in Wall St. or the British Empire: Don't kid yourselves. I know. I know this International set-up ($) like nobody's business.

"Movies have a brilliant FUTURE ($): The sky $ is the limit.

"The TRICK of the New Deal was to throw the U.S. National Treasury hopelessly into debt ($), thereby causing a REPEAL of the U.S. Constitution, and setting up a TOTALITARIAN STATE on the SOVIET PATTERN: Making a STRONG AFFILIATION with the Soviet Union: Such a union with Soviet Russia would spell the doom of the British Empire and American Capitalism ($), and PREVENT World War III: I'm trying to preserve American Capitalism ($)--God-damn England (PERIOD). I like Russia.

"I love the 'gal'.

Your Friend

/s/ [REDACTED]

"Floyd Gibbons wrote the 'Red Napoleon' about me--I had ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO WITH IT.

I'll handle Lana's Personal affairs: For 'Christ Sake' don't tell 'er! She'll be all right: She has the erroneous idea of all Cinema Stars--that actresses have to be TEMPERMENTAL or temperamental (I forget). You can handle her easily--I'm sure of that: Why don't you star her again with Clark Gable and Robert Taylor? Clark Gable made her in 'Bonky Tonk'--Wonderful cinema production.

"I just woke up -- I'm kinda DOPEY. I can't type, anyway: Can't write, either, for that matter.

"I knew FINANCE ($), though: They (Wall St.) won't let me in. Ask Miss Turner. Ain't that classy? Clark Gable is a good guy."

(4) Letter postmarked [REDACTED], March 18, 1946, and addressed "Messrs. Samuel Goldwyn & Louis B. Mayer, c/o M.G.M. Studios, Inc., Culver City, California." This letter is dated [REDACTED] 3/18/46. B7C

"Dear Friends:

"You think I'm lying or am the victim grandiloquent delusion,
I USED TO ADVISE THE LATE JOHN PIERPONT MORGAN (I'm not kiddin'):
I saved the Morgan ($) assets from being 'frozen' in England: I told old man Morgan he had better take his money out of England, there was going to be a war: I wrote 'in a lot of other letters:
Nice old Man: That set-up hasn't got bat-brains now. I know what I'm talking about. I know my onions ($). It just comes natural:
My father was always afraid of capitalists, and he was always wont to talk about it when I was very, very young: I grew to love the damn stuff (capitalism) -- I like the Russians and Russia, but I don't like the Russian set-up ($) for nothing.

"I think there is nothing in the world like the N.Y. Stock Exchange: They know me very well there: WALL ST. is Afraid of Me.
I'm not kidding about that.

"Jews are not excluded from Wall St: Wall St. is scared to death, My Friends: I know (period)."
